Domestic Abuse Support

Stockport Domestic Abuse Support delivers a person centred, trauma informed service for the victims, perpetrators and wider families of those involved in situations of domestic abuse across the borough of Stockport.

The service consists of four strands:

1. Early intervention, prevention approaches and step down support for victims
2. Support for high and medium risk victims (complex safeguarding)
3. Independent Domestic Abuse Advocate (IDVA) service
4. Early intervention and prevention approaches for people worried about their own behaviour
